

So here is chapter 4
of Only the flower knows
whoot, whoot!

And this will be that last chapter for a while, I think the next chapter comes out in November/December so till then...we can only wait...

Once again, give thanks to Lea Nicolale, w/o her translations this chapter could not have come to fruition.....

And if given the chance, support the original author too!

Once again, the chapter was too large to upload in one file so I've split it into 2 parts..

Enjoy!

little?

Note: If you're curious, the notes under the flowers are both flowers, like birthstones helping with a research he gains nothing

from...

He can't be cooped up in this room when it's so nice
outside

Hazy

It's not like we have anything in common

Or that the conversation
is interesting

Found
them in a dark room
in the forest

It kinda
makes me
happy

...is that so?

yeah

like this

...yes,
yes

Why is
he so
friendly?

ah

...sandy
dissipate
into my heart

I wonder
what other
emotions he takes notice on that I'm unaware of

Every time he makes me notice
something I didn't know about

Then find
this plant
next

It's ok if you take it

The
call

Was it from his girlfriend?

Though his level
of intelligence is a mystery

But, well...
he seems
kind

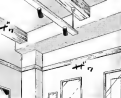

I really
love
you

it may be that being a little pushy or laid-
back is more attractive

I start
thinking
about
change
things

With just a little
kindness

That's
why

different
from me

The
river-
side

The
riverside

Would
you
like to go?
